Year 13 Exams – Tuesday 12th January – Tuesday 19th January

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you had a good holiday period and enjoyed whatever family time you were able to have.

As you will be aware from Mr McSweeney's communications, the start of school for year 13 has been delayed until Monday 11th January and we have therefore needed to revisit our plans for the upcoming year 13 exams.

Based on the information we currently have, we have taken the decision to delay these exams by a week and therefore the year 13 January exams will now be running from Tuesday 12th January until Tuesday 19th January. The exam timetables the students received will be mirrored during this exam period, as an example if a student had an exam on Tuesday 5th January, that exam will now take place on Tuesday 12th January. There will be no study leave for the new exam period; lessons will be aimed at supporting students with their preparations for the exams they will be sitting.

For this week, 5th – 8th January, all year 13 students should follow their lesson timetables. Lessons will be delivered online, and will be aimed at supporting preparation for the exams starting next week.

If you have any questions, please contact either your child's tutor or myself.

Kind regards

Mr Constable
