Dear Parents,

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new Sixth Form Leader at Emmbrook School. I am very excited, and privileged, to be given the opportunity to work with such a key group of students. I look forward to getting to know the students over the coming weeks so that I can provide them with the best possible Sixth Form experience and support and help them succeed whilst in Sixth Form.

To give you some brief information about myself, I have worked as a teacher since 2007, with the majority of time being spent working with sixth form students. Having worked on both the academic and pastoral sides of sixth form life, I am looking forward to combining these as Sixth Form Leader. Sixth Form is one of the most important times in a student's academic career, and I see my role as enabling them at this crucial time to achieve their very best, in close collaboration with their form tutors, the teaching staff and the parents.

Please feel free to contact me to discuss any aspect of Sixth Form life and I look forward to meeting you soon.

Yours sincerely
Mr D. Constable

(Sixth Form Leader from September)
