

Key Stage 3 History roadmap

When did it become safe to drink tap water?
Public Health through time

Was the Norman Conquest really so significant?

Could medieval kings behave as they wished?

Did rats and rebels transform the lives of medieval peasants?

How was Anne Herbert and her family affected by the Wars of the Roses?

Thematic Study

Church, state and society in Medieval Britain

A significant society in world history

Why was African history so rich before 1600?

How do historians work?
The skills of history

How significant was the church in the medieval world?

Did medieval queens deserve their reputations?

Thematic Study

How has migration helped shape Britain 500 BC to the present day?

Was 1745-1901 an age of hope and glory?

Did Britannia rule the waves in 1745?

Were women making history during the English Civil War?

How far did Henry VIII live up to the public image he created for himself?

Ideas, political power, industry and empire: Britain, 1745-1901

Church, state and society 1509 - 1745

What was the impact of religious change on ordinary people?

Did the Industrial Revolution transform the lives of people in a positive way?

Were the Mughal Emperors more successful than the Tudors?

Was the execution of Charles I significant in the history of royal power?

Was the age of Elizabeth truly a 'Golden Age'?

What can Olaudah Equiano tell us about the slave trade?

How democratic was the United Kingdom by 1901?

Why were people attracted to extremist politics between the wars?

How did the Holocaust happen and in what ways was it resisted?

Why was there a Cold War?

Is religion responsible for modern terrorism?

Should the British Empire be a source of national pride?

Challenges for Britain, Europe and the wider world 1901 to the present day

A significant society in world history

Why was the First World War called the 'war to end all war'?

What was the turning point of the Second World War?

Did the British Empire 'jump' or was it 'pushed'?

Was the United States a land of opportunity?