Dear Parents and Carers,

Headteacher's Weekly Update

The first week back has gone well and the sunnier days are helping everyone to feel a little more positive!

Uniform Summer Orders

In acknowledgement of the warmer weather (which now looks set for the next week or so according to the forecasts) from Monday we will move to summer orders for the uniform. This means that:

- The blazer and school jumper are not required
- No other jumpers/hoodies/coats to be worn in place of the blazer/jumper
- Ties continue to be required unless we experience sustained higher temperatures, this would be communicated with parents

Sports Leaders at St. Paul's

I want to thank the Sports Leaders who supported the St. Paul's sports day this week with Mr Edwards. I have received multiple emails from staff and parents praising the outstanding job that our students did. My sincere thanks to Calum, Theo, Kylie, Jacob, Marques, Nadia, Sophie, Elliot, Dominic, Yashvi, Millie, Benjamin, Lewis, Joel and Oliver. Each of these students is a fantastic ambassador for our school and we can all be rightly proud of them!

Advanced Information for GCSE & A-Level Exams

There continue to be instances of the advanced information shared by exam boards not entirely matching the content of exams papers; this is very much a national issue. If your child encounters any serious issues please contact us as there is an agreed system for schools to raise concerns formally with exam boards.

Head Injuries and Concussions

Please inform us if your child has a concussion or suspected concussion. It is very important that we are able to monitor students in school following a head injury.

I hope that the good weather continues over the weekend.

Best wishes,

Nick McSweeney
