

Parenting Special Children

(advice, help & courses for parents/carers & professionals)

ADHD Service

The ADHD Service offers workshops and courses for all parent/carers who have children or young people of any age who are pre- and post- assessment for ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder).

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/adhd/>

Autism Service

The Autism Service offers a series of workshops and courses for parent/carers who have children or young people who are pre- and post- assessment for Autism.

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/autism/>

Trauma and Attachment Service

Parenting Special Children provides a specialist service for children who have been through adverse childhood experiences, their parents, carers and professionals working with them.

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/trauma-and-attachment-service-tas/>

Sleep Service

Parenting Special Children's Sleep Service is provided by our team of practitioners including our highly specialist Sleep Practitioners. The service offers a range of advice, support and training to parent/carers of children and teenagers with additional needs. Training for professionals is also available.

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/sleep/>

Support Groups

PSC has set up a number of support groups in response to feedback about the lack of ongoing support available, and subsequent feelings of isolation experienced by many of our families.

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/support-groups/>

Parenting Programmes

The Parenting Service offers a wide range of courses and workshops for families of children and young people with special needs for parent/carers both pre- and post-assessment.

<https://www.parentingspecialchildren.co.uk/support-we-offer/parenting-programmes/>