

Careers Bulletin 10th of March 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

Celebrating National Careers Week & Inspiring Futures at Emmbrook

Last week at school, we celebrated National Careers Week in tutoring time, with our staff sharing their career journeys to inspire students. We've also been posting resources on our social media to help you continue the conversation at home, encouraging your child to think about their future, understand why school is important, and strive for better attendance. Every day, our teachers create opportunities in lessons to support these aspirations.

Celebrating Women at Emmbrook – March 8th

On International Women's Day, we will be celebrating the incredible achievements of women around the world and within our community. At Emmbrook, we recognise and showcase examples of truly "Pretty" Women, Well:

- ✦ Pretty Ambitious—because they dream big and chase their goals.
- ✦ Pretty Resilient—because they rise after every fall.
- ✦ Pretty Innovative—because they change the world with their ideas.
- ✦ Pretty Determined—because they never give up.
- ✦ Pretty Confident—because they believe in themselves.
- ✦ Pretty Patient—because greatness takes time.
- ✦ Pretty Courageous—because they face challenges head-on.

- ✦ Pretty Inspiring—because they lift others as they climb.
- ✦ Pretty Fearless—because they dare to lead.
- ✦ Pretty Hardworking—because success isn't given, it's earned.
- ✦ Pretty Kind—because kindness is power.
- ✦ Pretty Powerful—because they make an impact.
- ✦ Pretty Unstoppable—because nothing can hold them back.

Women are not just pretty—they are pretty extraordinary. 🍌

Women continue to break barriers, challenge expectations, and shape the future, and we are excited to celebrate their impact. Let's continue to inspire, support, and uplift each other every day!

Lastly, we would like to ask you to encourage your children to fill out a survey related to aspirations. Here is the link: <https://forms.office.com/e/HpX03zAABg>. Students in Year 8 and above will receive an email from Barbara via Unifrog to complete it.

Warm wishes,
Emmbrook School Careers Team
